Regarding the K-Love station I feel it is a very valuable asset to our area providing quality programming which I can trust to be clean for my children. It would leave only secular music in our area should it be removed from the air. Klove is beneficial to our community unlike any other station on the air.